

Monday 14 April		Morning Session
0800 - 0830	Registration (also available 2.00pm-4.00pm Sunday 13 April) Location: Oceania, Te Papa
0830 - 0900	Light refreshments (Oceania)
0905 - 0925	Mihi whakatau (Sounding Theatre)
0925 - 0930	Welcome: Master of Ceremonies: Dr Ashley Bloomfield , Chief Advisor, Public Health/National Director Tobacco Control, Sector Capability &amp; Innovation Directorate, Ministry of Health
0930 - 0945	Opening Address: Hon Steve Chadwick , Associate Minister of Health, Minister of Women's Affairs Location: Sounding Theatre
0945 - 1045	Plenary session 1 - Screening 2008 - Growing points and growing pains Professor Alistair Woodward , Head of School of Population Health, University of Auckland and Chair National Screening Advisory Committee Location: Sounding Theatre Chair: Dr Ashley Bloomfield , Chief Advisor, Public Health/National Director Tobacco Control, Sector Capability &amp; Innovation Directorate, Ministry of Health
1030 - 1100	Morning tea
	Rangimarie 1&amp;2 Emerging Screening Issues Chair: Barbara Beckford Consumer Representative, National Screening Advisory Committee	Oceania 1&amp;2 Antenatal and Newborn Screening Chair: Professor Greg Leigh Renwick Centre/Conjoint Professor of Special Education, University of Newcastle; Chair of the Australian Newborn Hearing Screening Committee.	Sounding Theatre Breast Screening Chair: Michele McCreddie Manager, Cancer Screening, National Screening Unit, Ministry of Health
1100-1120	Population-based colorectal cancer screening in New Zealand: next step Dr Caroline Shaw Senior Research Fellow/Public Health Medicine Specialist Department of Public Health University of Otago, Wellington	Screening for postnatal depression: where to for New Zealand? Dr Pat Tuohy Chief Advisor - Child &amp; Youth Health Population Health Directorate Ministry of Health	Estimates and projections of 'underlying' breast cancer incidence in New Zealand Professor Richard Taylor Professor of International Health School of Population Health, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Queensland
1120-1140	The manner of our dying: challenging issues for screening and prevention in an ageing population Dr Dee Mangin Department of Public Health and General Practice University of Otago, Christchurch	Parental experiences of cochlear implantation Dr Nina Sawicki Researcher Donald Beasley Institute Dunedin	Do Maori women with screen detected breast cancers fare worse than non-Maori? Mr Ian Campbell Lead Surgeon BreastScreen Midland
1140-1200	Workplace wellness screening - a stitch in time? Helen Mcleod Marketing Manager Medlab South Ltd	Waikato DHB's experience of implementing a universal routine offer of antenatal HIV screening Caroline Wharry Clinical Nurse Specialist Waikato District Health Board	Midland Cancer Network: improving the breast cancer patient journey Loryn Scanlan Patient Mapping Manager Midland Cancer Network
1200-1220	Te Ara Tukutuku: an integrated framework for assessment Nicola Atwool Principal Advisor Office of the Children's Commissioner	Newborn metabolic screening - a new paradigm Dr Dianne Webster Director, National Testing Centre Auckland District Health Board	Interval cancers in BSA 1999-2002 Professor Richard Taylor Professor of International Health School of Population Health, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Queensland
1220-1240	Let us proceed, with caution and hope, but proceed nevertheless: screening for intimate partner violence Jane Koziol-McLain Associate Professor School of Nursing Auckland University of Technology	Intervention Strategies: developing a joint Health and Education response Mark Hutton Senior Advisor, Operational Policy Group Special Education National Office, Ministry of Education	An analysis of breast cancer biological factors and projected mortality by ethnicity in BreastScreen Aotearoa Dr Madeleine Wall Clinical Director BreastScreen Aotearoa
1240-1300	NSU Advisory Groups Poster Presentations
1300-1345	Lunch

Monday 14 April		Afternoon Session
1345-1430	Plenary session 2 – “A matter of faith, not science”: discourse on prostate cancer screening in Australian news media 2003-2006. Professor Simon Chapman, School of Public Health, University of Sydney Location: Sounding Theatre Chair: Karen Mitchell, Group Manager, National Screening Unit, Ministry of Health
1430-1500	Afternoon tea
	Sounding Theatre Primary Care Chair: Dr Jim Vause Past-President, NZ College of General Practitioners and Member of National Screening Advisory Committee	Rangimarie 1&amp;2 Ethics, Law and Health Information Chair: Chris Parkin Senior Teaching Fellow, Otago University and Member of National Screening Advisory Committee	Oceania 1&amp;2 Economic Evaluation in Screening Chair: Professor Alistair Woodward Head of School of Population Health, University of Auckland and Chair National Screening Advisory Committee
1500-1530	Free cervical screening promotes health Jane Brosnahan Quality Faciliator Aoraki Primary Health Organisation	'Caveat emptor'! Let the screening participant beware Richman Wee Law Foundation's Human Genome Research Project University of Otago	Cheaper chlamydia screening Dr Helen Moriarty Senior Lecturer Primary Health Care &amp; General Practice University of Otago, Wellington
1530-1600	Increasing emphasis on preventative practice in primary health care settings necessitates screening for lifestyle and mental health risk factors Dr Felicity Goodyear-Smith Department of General Practice &amp; Primary Health Care University of Auckland	Pre-birth testing and citizen empowerment John Pennington Programme Leader Toi te Taiao: the Bioethics Council	The cost-effectiveness of cervical screening in New Zealand Karen Canfell Sydney Rotary Research Fellow The Cancer Council Sydney, Australia
1600-1630	A collective, community approach to Chlamydia screening in Whangarei Mary Carthew, Nursing Integration Leader &amp; Brenda Jackman, Sexual Health Nurse Manaia Health PHO	Is there any Eugenics out there - and how would we know? A consideration of the use of language in screening debates and how this attempts to influence policy decisions. John Forman Executive Director NZ Organisation for Rare Disorders	HPV testing as a test of cure in the cervical screening programme: a cost-minimisation analysis James Harris Principal, LECG Ltd Wellington
1630-1700	Screening and risk: what our patients believe Courtney Macdonald University of Otago, Wellington	An exploration of the legal and ethical implications of predictive genetic testing of newborn children Dr Cordelia Thomas Senior Legal Advisor Bioethics Council	Epidemiologic and economic evaluation of potential changes to cervical screening in New Zealand Karen Canfell Sydney Rotary Research Fellow The Cancer Council Sydney, Australia
1700-1715	Prayer/karakia
1800-1900	Social hour at the Boatshed, Taranaki Street Wharf
1900-2300	Symposium dinner at the Boatshed, Taranaki Street Wharf

Tuesday 15 April		Morning Session
0815-0830	Prayer/karakia
0830-0845	Welcome to day 2: Dr Ashley Bloomfield , Chief Advisor, Public Health/National Director Tobacco Control, Sector Capability &amp; Innovation Directorate, Ministry of Health
0845-0945	Plenary Session 3 – Mammography Screening - Effects on mortality and morbidity Professor David Roder , Group Executive, Research and Information Science, Cancer Council South Australia. Location: Sounding Theatre Chair: Dr Madeleine Wall , Clinical Director, BreastScreen Aotearoa, National Screening Unit, Ministry of Health
0945-1030	Plenary Session 4 - Get screened and live differently: Newborn Hearing Screening and alternative lives for deaf children Professor Greg Leigh , Chair, RIDBC Renwick Centre for Professional Education and Research, Royal Institute for Deaf and Blind Children/The University of Newcastle, Australia Location: Sounding Theatre Chair: Geraldine Woods , Deputy-Director General, Health &amp; Disability National Services Directorate, Ministry of Health
1030 –1100	Morning tea
	Oceania 1&amp;2 Genetics Chair: John Pennington Programme Leader, Toi te Taiao: the Bioethics Council, Ministry for the Environment	Rangimarie 1&amp;2 Increasing Participation Chair: Sandra Corbett Member of the Maori Advisory Group National Screening Unit	Sounding Theatre Quality, Monitoring and Evaluation Chair: Professor David Roder Group Executive, Research and Information Science, Cancer Council South Australia
1100-1120	New perspectives on screening for Fragile X Syndrome Anita Nicholls Fragile X Trust New Zealand	Successful recruitment of indigenous women into a breast screening programme Joan Miles, Manager &amp; Hinarata Campin, Health Promotion Coordinator, BreastScreen South Ltd	Inequalities in the treatment of cervical cancer between Maori and non-Maori women in New Zealand Dr Ricci Harris Te Rōpū Rangahau Hauora a Eru Pōmare, School of Medicine and HealthSciences University of Otago Wellington
1120-1140	A gene based risk score identifies smokers and ex-smokers at high risk of lung cancer for targeted intervention Raewyn J Hopkins, RN Department of Respiratory Medicine, Green Lane Hospital, Auckland	Kia Kaha Te Whai Oranga Mou: Maori Model of Practice Nancy Danaher, Health Promoter, Waikato DHB Christine Brears, CEO of Tamaranui Community Kokiri Trust	Discordant Read Review in Mammography Screening, Palmerston North, 2003-2004 Dr Glyn Thomas Clinical Director BreastScreen Coast to Coast
1140-1200	Direct to consumer marketing of genetic testing Associate Professor Andrew Shelling Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences University of Auckland	Let's talk about smear tests - a case study of social marketing for the National Cervical Screening Programme Graham Bethune Communications &amp; Marketing Manager National Screening Unit	Maori and non-Maori disparities in screening and relevant conditions: an update Donna Cormack Te Rōpū Rangahau Hauora a Eru Pōmare, School of Medicine and HealthSciences University of Otago Wellington

1200-1230	Genetic screening issues - the complexity/uncertainty of interpreting genetic information Siân Nisbet Genetic Associate Central Regional Genetic Services Wellington Hospital Capital and Coast District Health Board	"Wahine Hauora" - engaging the community in health promotion Ruth Davy CEO WONS: Nursing, Education and Health Promotion Service	Inequalities in breast screening between Maori and non-Maori women Shirley Simmonds Te Rōpū Rangahau Hauora a Eru Pōmare, School of Medicine and HealthSciences University of Otago Wellington
1230-1330	Lunch
1330-1430	Plenary Session 5 –‘Undeserved’ or ‘Under-served’ – screening in Godzone. Associate Professor Papaarangi Reid, Tumuaki/Deputy Dean Maori, Te Kupenga Hauora Maori, School of Population Health, University of Auckland Location: Sounding Theatre Chair: Teresa Wall, Deputy-Director General, Maori Health Directorate, Ministry of Health
1430-1500	Afternoon tea
	Oceania 1&amp;2 It's Just a Test.... Chair: Dr Brendon Gray Public Health Registrar, National Screening Unit, Ministry of Health	Rangimarie 1&amp;2 Cervical Screening Chair: Eileen Hewer Manager, Quality Assurance National Screening Unit, Ministry of Health	Sounding Theatre Screening Programmes – Who Decides? Chair: Professor Alistair Woodward Head of School of Population Health, University of Auckland and Chair National Screening Advisory Committee
1500-1530	Privacy and the Newborn Metabolic Screening Programme Marie Shroff, Privacy Commissioner Office of the Privacy Commissioner	Coverage or quality? Auditing the performance of the National Cervical Screening Programme Dr Hazel Lewis Clinical Director National Cervical Screening Programme	Screening in New Zealand Karen Mitchell, Group Manager National Screening Unit
1530-1600	Communicating Health Risks Stuart Brock Associate Dean Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences Victoria University of Wellington	Pilot study to assess the feasibility and cost effectiveness of HPV testing in the follow-up of women treated for high grade intraepithelial lesions within the NCSP Dr Peter Sykes University of Otago, Christchurch Canterbury District Health Board	Prostate Cancer Screening Barry Young President, Chief Executive Officer Prostate Cancer Foundation of New Zealand
1600-1630	Screening and the Code Tina Mitchell Senior Legal Advisor Office of the Health and Disability Commissioner	Randomised comparison of Surepath liquid based cytology and conventional cytology in a colposcopy clinic setting Dr Peter Sykes University of Otago, Christchurch Canterbury District Health Board	Only a Pawn in their Game? Jo Fitzpatrick Director Women's Health Action Trust
1630-1700	Closing summary and questions for panel from floor Professor Alistair Woodward, Professor David Roder, Professor Greg Leigh, Associate Professor Papaarangi Reid, Karen Mitchell Chair: Dr Ashley Bloomfield, Chief Advisor, Public Health/National Director Tobacco Control, Sector Capability &amp; Innovation Directorate, Ministry of Health Location: Sounding Theatre

